Changing Boundaries—The following communication was received from the Northwest Indiana Conference in regard to changing the boundary lines between the two Conferences.

To the Presiding Bishop and Members of the North Indiana Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: In conformity with Paragraphs 436 and 437, Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church 1900, the Northwest Indiana Annual Conference took the following action at the session held in South Bend, Ind., September 2–8, 1903:

At the first day's session, September 2d, the following memorial was introduced and action thereon taken, as recorded on pages 303–304, Minutes of 1903:

[The printed Minutes are adopted as the Official Record.]

Memorial on Conference Boundaries—D M Wood read the following paper memorializing the General Conference to change the boundary between Northwest Indiana and North Indiana Conferences, and moved its adoption:

The Northwest Indiana Conference asks a change in boundary line between the North and Northwest Indiana Conferences so as to equally divide the territory now occupied by these two Conferences. We call attention to the following facts: The St. Joseph River constitutes about three miles of the present boundary, extending from South Bend to the Michigan State line. The distance from South Bend to Indianapolis, or 129 miles on a direct line, is bounded by a public highway known as the "Michigan Road," which in an early day and before the construction of railroads, was a well-known State thoroughfare, but to-day is comparatively unknown. Indianapolis is in almost the exact center of the State east and west. South Bend is seven miles west of the center. Logansport is ten miles west of a straight line drawn from Indianapolis to South Bend. This curve in the boundary line to pass through Logansport gives an advantage of twenty-one miles in width to the North Indiana Conference at this point.

From Logansport to the Illinois line is sixty-one miles, and eighty-two miles to the Ohio line. Logansport is ten or twelve miles west of a line dividing the State north and south. It is now a great railroad center and greatly needed by the Northwest Indiana Conference as an administrative center, and is so located as not to be used as such by the North Indiana Conference. Its location and railroads would make it a center for a Presiding Elder's district equal, if not superior, to any city now in the Northwest Indiana Conference, and would make it one of five or six great administrative centers of the Conference.

Another important item showing that the present boundary line does not constitute an equitable division, is that the North Indiana Conference includes the richest area of the State with no waste lands, while almost one-third of the territory of the Northwest Indiana Conference is marsh land not yet fully open to cultivation.

We call attention to the fact that the following county lines would almost exactly divide the north end of the State into equal parts: The east line of St. Joseph, Marshall, Fulton, Cass, crossing Howard on direct line from southeast corner of Cass to northwest corner of Tipton, thence south on east line of Clinton and Boone until it intersects the line of the Indiana Conference. A line such as this would have a rational and equitable basis, and could be traced by any child in the district schools.

Upon these facts, and others which may be furnished, we base our memorial for an equal division of territory.

W H Hickman moved to substitute that we appoint a Commission of three to meet a like Commission from the North Indiana Conference, and canvass the matter of readjusting the Conference boundaries.

On motion of S P Colvin, the subject was postponed and made the Order of the Day after the report of the Presiding Elder, of Lafayette District, to-morrow morning.

At the second day's session, September 3d, as recorded on page 305, the following action was taken regarding the memorial:

Order of the Day— The Order of the Day, the Memorial on Conference Boundaries, was taken up. W H Hickman, by common consent, withdrew his substitute; and he moved to amend by the addition of the following, and the amendment was accepted.

And in order to have a brotherly consideration of the whole question, we ask our Conference to appoint a Commission of five men from our Conference, to meet a like Commission from North Indiana Conference to consider the advantages to be obtained in developing the territory affected, and the Church generally, by making these changes. And that the Secretary of our Conference be instructed to notify the North Indiana Conference of this action, and requesting that Conference, on our behalf, to appoint said Commission.

On motion of S P Colvin, the paper was divided. The memorial to the General Conference was adopted unanimously by a count vote of 119. The amendment to raise a Commission was adopted by a count vote, 95 for and 1 against.

At the third day's session, September 4th, the following Commissions were confirmed to carry out the above action:

Commission on Boundaries—The Bishop read the nominations for the Commission on Boundaries: W P McKinsey, J S Hoagland, A T Briggs, S P Colvin and M H Appleby, and they were confirmed.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct transcript of the proceedings of the Northwest Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, regarding the Memorial to be presented to the General Conference of 1904, on changing the boundary lines between this and the North Indiana Conference; and that I have given this official notice to Leslie J Naftzger, Secretary of said Conference.

REPORTS.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We have with great satisfaction heard from the field agent for this district; of the vast work being accomplished by this Society, especially in our new possessions and other mission fields. Everywhere the Bible Society is the right arm of power, opening homes and hearts for the reception of JESUS CHRIST. Our Conference is to be congratulated on its increasing interest in the American Bible Society, manifested in the more than forty per cent. increase in our collections since last year. Let it be remembered that this Society alone (so far as this country is concerned) translates and furnishes by direct gift, or at nominal cost, the Bible for the poor of our own land and our mission fields.

Therefore, Resolved, 1st. That the apportionment of this Society be seven per cent. of the amount apportioned for missions.

2d. That we indorse Dr. John Pearson as the representative of this Society.

3d. That a favorable hour be set apart during our next Conference session as an anniversary of the American Bible Society.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension and the Church at large on the great success of their work during this quadrennium, and especially on the remarkable financial success of the past year, which shows a handsome increase over previous years.

2. We reaffirm that our rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions still need the work of Church Extension, and that our Methodism, by fostering and strengthening this work, will increase its power to do the large work demanded.

3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee, until all the people under the protection of the American flag shall be furnished with places of worship.

4. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several Districts and pastoral charges for collection, and that, availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, we will present this cause in all our charges, and secure at least the amount asked, in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

5. The collections taken this year in our churches, besides wills and bequests, amount to $4,031, showing an actual increase of $135 over last year. For the ensuing year our Conference is asked to raise, by collections, $6,000. Interest, therefore, in our own Conference, as well as in the general cause, should inspire us to all diligence to secure the full amount asked, and if possible go beyond it.

6. Christianity In Earnest, with its quarterly visits, will furnish to all who receive it the latest tidings of this work and its wants. Documents for free distribution can be secured by pastors and church committees on Church Extension on application to the Board of Church Extension, 1026 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa.

7. We hear, with constantly increasing delight, of the growing effectiveness of Rev W D Parr, D D, of our Conference, as one of the Church Extension Secretaries, and appreciated the masterful address delivered by him on Church Extension at the anniversary of this Society this year. We believe in Dr Parr and in his ability to take care of the great interests intrusted to him by the Church. We will heartily welcome him to our charges as the representative of the above Society.

EARLE NAFTZGER, Secretary.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

We are glad to know that our people are coming to realize more and more fully that it is just as much the duty of Methodists to see that their churches and parsonages are insured as it is to build them. It is estimated that approximately $7,000,000 of the insurance in force with our company, is on such property that was formerly uninsured.

The Board of Insurance, elected by the General Conference of 1896, completed the legal corporation in compliance with the Discipline in March, 1899. The operations of the first full quadrennium, which closed with the beginning of this year, proved that the inaugurating of this work was a wise action, the full importance of which cannot be put into figures. Our church and other property, directly in the interest of Methodism, is under protection to the extent of $21,278,459.00. The total losses since organization were $106,784.92.

It is estimated by the office that approximately one-half of these losses were on property that was formerly without insurance. This means that a large number of our charges that were weak financially have been saved from serious embarrassment, and that Methodism has been saved in some localities where rebuilding would have been out of the question but for the assistance given by our company. It is of great importance to world-wide Methodism that we co-operate in increasing the volume of risks on the well constructed and favorably located churches and thus make it easier for those less fortunately situated to carry insurance, for which, of course, they pay a proportionately higher rate. While our corporation in compliance with the Discipline is avoiding, so far as is safe, the piling up of assets, the views of the management are entirely in accord with the conservative laws controlling its operations and a cash Reserve has been built up and is held for the protection of the policy holders equivalent to that required of stock companies; but so far as is practicable the premium money is left in the hands of the members until needed to meet the annual payments.

The RESOURCES of the Company were as follows: Cash Assets, $56,675.51. Notes not due, $187,577.31. Total Assets admitted by Insurance Department, $244,252.82. LIABILITIES: Losses due and unpaid, none. Losses in process of settlement, $5,785.00. Sundry accounts payable, $2,674.89. Reserve, held for protection of members, $32,999.93. Assets above all debts and the Reserve required by law, $211,252.89.

While the terms of insurance are much more favorable than those used by stock companies, the rates are held sufficiently high to provide for emergencies, and yet the last annual meeting was able to declare the usual 10 per cent. dividend for the fiscal year 1903 as earned on premium payments made in 1902.

It should be remembered that under a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States there is no legal difficulty in the way of our churches insuring with our own company.

The Secretary, Henry P Magill, 57 Washington Street, Chicago, Ill, will furnish any additional information desired.

CLASS MEETINGS.

WHEREAS, We believe the Class Meeting to be one of the most potent factors in developing and increasing the spiritual life of the members of the church ; therefore, be it

Resolved, That, as pastors, we will more faithfully urge our members to attend, so far as possible, every service.

We also recommend that even where Class Meetings are not being held, that the office of Class Leader, as the assistant of the pastor in his spiritual relations to the membership, be preserved.

EDUCATION.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

Whatever may have sufficed in the past, we believe that the spirit of the times as well as the exigencies of the work of the Church of Jesus Christ in the Twentieth Century, will demand a consecrated, educated, and spirit-filled ministry. We therefore advise every young man who feels the call of God into the work of the ministry, to make a thorough preparation in some one of our Theological Schools.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

This school is situated at Evanston, Illinois, on a beautiful campus by the side of Lake Michigan. Access is afforded the students to the new Orington-Lunt Library, which contains thirty thousand volumes of well selected books; and especial attention is called to the advantages of Prof. Cumnock's School of Oratory.

The faculty of the institution consists of men who are examples in piety, eminent in scholarship, and who have profound faith in the divine authority of the Scriptures. About one hundred student appointments are available to capable men who wish to avail themselves of this assistance.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

Boston University School of Theology is our oldest school and is unsurpassed. Students in this school have great advantages in being admitted into any of the University classes without tuition. They have free access to the great libraries of the city as well as to the magnificent Art Galleries. The excellent literary advantages of the old classic city of Boston are inestimable. With an equipment adequate for all demands and a faculty capable, consecrated and thorough, the institution is able to fit men for the highest work of the church.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

This Divinity School at Madison, New Jersey, is within an hours' ride of New York City, thus affording its students the advantages of a country home and contact with great city problems. It is one of our greatest and best equipped schools, situated as it is in the midst of a great metropolitan Conference, and near the great city of New York it affords a fine opportunity for Missionary work. Free scholarships in Columbia and New York Universities are extended to those desiring a Doctorate in Philosophy.

While the Professors keep in touch with all advanced thought, yet they prove all things and hold fast only that which is good.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE OF BALTIMORE.

This College was founded by the Baltimore Conference in connection with, and as a feature of the celebration of the first centennial of the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The aim of this College is to provide young women with facilities for thorough collegiate training under conditions favorable to physical and moral well-being. It is denominational only in the sense that its discipline is in harmony with the views of the church which founded it. The New Testament ideal of character is upheld and urged upon students without effort, direct or indirect, to influence denominational preferences.

We deeply sympathize with the friends of this College in the great loss they have sustained in the recent conflagration in the city of Baltimore. We give to President John F Goucher, D D, a renewed expression of our confidence in his ability to direct the College through this emergency.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

We rejoice in the prosperity and growth of the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, Ill. This is the only school of our church for women exclusively in all the middle West, and we commend it to those of our people who wish to patronize a school for women as a thorough school, and a safe and helpful Christian home.

We deplore the fact that many Methodist parents are sending their daughters to schools not in harmony with the discipline of our church, and we urge our pastors to vigilance in securing the attendance of our young people in our schools.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

The sainted Bishop Hurst, first Chancellor of the American University, looking out upon its future with prophetic eye, once said, "As God by His special Providence has led us to every step, so will he lead us in all future years, until students from many lands shall enter its halls in quest of light from Him who is the light of the world," and we believe that this prophecy will be fully realized. Much has already been done toward its realization, so that with lands and buildings, with endownment and bequests aggregating $2,400,000.00, and with 1500 students already knocking for admission, it seems to us that there should be no further delay in opening the University.

But this cannot be done until the removal of the restriction placed upon the Trustees by the General Conference of 1892, which forbids the opening of the institution until $5,000,000.00 of endownment above the cost of lands and buildings have been secured. We believe this action to have been a mistake, or at least no longer necessary. Like action would have prevented the opening of every university in Europe and America.

We feel sure that with such a body of great men as trustees and the wise and capable Bishop McCabe as Chancellor, it will be safe to remove this restriction and launch this great institution upon its career of uplifting the world.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We most heartily commend the work for higher Christian education which is being accomplished for the Church through the Board of Education. We especially approve the emphasis upon educational excellence and genuine spirituality as the true ideal for our schools. We note with satisfaction the report of special gifts to the Board of Education, and unreservedly commend it to the benevolence of our people, particularly those who are able to make large gifts.

We urge that Childrens' Day be observed and a collection taken in every charge according to the Discipline. It is not "Flag Sunday" nor "Flower Sunday" nor any festival of the sort. It is the day when the doors of the Christian College should be made to open wide for the Christian youth. Let it be so observed.

During the past year the Board aided students who gave their home residence or Church relationship as within the bounds of our Conference to the number of seventeen and to the amount of $1,040.00. The contributions of our Conference received by the Board for the year were $1,963.90. Our Minutes show a large number of charges not contributing to this fund.

We commend the officers of the Board for their energy in collecting loans, and we urge all beneficiaries within our own Conference to make as prompt payment as possible. We commend the Christian Student and the Cokesbury Guild to all our people.

We call upon our people to give liberally of their wealth that our institutions everywhere shall be equal to the best.

We call upon our institutions everywhere to fulfill their high and important ministry in behalf of the Church. We call upon parents to consecrate their children to Christ and His service and to give them the best education as a preparation for that service. And we call upon our young men and women to give themselves fully to Christ for salvation and service, and to seek in a Christian College the highest training for the greatest usefulness. Our Church needs a thousand new men each year for the ministry alone. The head of the Church is calling for the best.

We recommend that in view of the location of Taylor University at Upland, no apportionment be made for public education, to the Upland charge.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

This school is located in the bounds of our Conference. It is under the control and direction of the National Local Preacher's Association of the Methodist Church, and is a fitting memorial and monument to the memory of our sainted Bishop Taylor. We commend its work and congratulate the institution on having secured Rev C W Winchester, DD, of the Gennesee Conference, as its President, as successor to Rev T C Reade, D D, deceased.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

We wish first of all to commend the wise and tactful leadership of Rev H A Gobin, D D, who so ably directed the affairs of the University through restless and perilous times and who has, since our last session, given over the direction of the work of the University to Rev Edwin H Hughes, S T D.

We congratulate the University in the selection of the new President. The beginning of his administration is auspicious for a new era of great prosperity. We feel assured that this cause which lies so near to our hearts has been placed in safe and competent hands. We are confident that the members of the Conference will give to Dr Hughes their loyal co-operation in whatever plans he may suggest. In this critical time in the history of the University, special effort ought to be made in securing gifts, creating DePauw sentiment, and sending new students to the University.

We take just pride in the work accomplished by our brother, Rev C E Line, D D. The addresses he has delivered, and the gifts he has secured, have made for him a splendid record as a servant of his Alma Mater. We again recommend that fifteen cents per member be apportioned to the charges of our Conference for the coming year, which sum shall constitute our regular collection for education.

TRUSTEES AND VISITORS.

We recommend that Rev John C White be appointed visitor to the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, Ill, Rev W M Nelson, visitor to Boston School of Theology, and Rev J M Canse to Drew Theological Seminary; Rev H W Bennett, D D, and Rev Chesteen W Smith, visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute.

We recommend that Rev C U Wade, D D, and Rev James A Patterson be appointed visitors to DePauw University for a term of two years from September 1, 1904.

We reccomend that Hon James F Elliott, and the Hon Hugh Daugherty be elected trustees of DePauw University for a term of three years from September 1, 1904, and that Wm H Charles be elected to fill out the unexpired term of the late M V Beiger.

Resolved, that this conference extends a most cordial invitation to the Rev Edwin H Hughes, S T D, President of DePauw University, to transfer to this Conference, and assure him of most brotherly treatment as a member of this ecclesiastical body.

Respectfully submitted,

J K Walts, President.

Edmund F Albertson, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CABINET.

The work of the Conference Epworth League during the year has been carried forward with much discouragement, from the fact of a misunderstanding between two of the Districts and the Conference Epworth League Constitution as to support and financial aid, making it impossible for the Conference organization to carry out its plans.

With these facts before us it is the sense of the Cabinet that we request the Conference to take under advisement the difficulties in the way of divided support to either abandon the Biennial Convention or urge united support. In the interim of the Conventions we cannot consult the body that created us, and so turn to this higher court for orders. We obediently await your pleasure, either in our discharge or a call for a united forward movement.

In behalf of the Cabinet,

J F SNYDER, Secretary.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Your Committee on Freedman's Aid and Sonthern Education Society beg leave to report as follows :

The work which this great Society is doing for the uplift of the millions of the needy white and colored people of the South, deserves not only the cordial support of all Christian people, but of all patriots as well.

The results already secured are almost phenominal. Thousands of Christian teachers, ministers, physicians, nurses, and men and women trained in our industrial schools, have gone forth to help in the elevation of their unfortunate brethern and the larger life of the republic.

We call special attention to the fact that there were more than three thousand six hundred students in the industrial department alone last year, and would respectfully request our pastors to emphasize this fact in presenting the work of the society to the people.

We desire to call attention to the fact also that the Christian Educator will be sent to all persons giving one dollar or more to the cause, and we suggest that the pastors send in the names of all such subscribers as soon as collection is taken. Tracts also, covering every phase of the Society's work, can be had free of charge by writing the Secretaries.

Your Committee suggests that the Lincoln Birthday Sunday be adopted and set apart as the most appropriate time for taking the collection for this Society.

The apportionment to this Conference for the incoming year is $5,400.

We request the Presiding Elders to apportion to the several Districts our apportionment, and pledge ourselves that we will do our best to raise the same in full.

Your Committee but voices the sentiment of the Conference when we say that no cause is more worthy of our full sympathy or more deserving of our enthusiastic support.

Signed by the Committee.

HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS WORK.

We congratulate the entire Church upon the success of the Deaconess and Hospital Work, and pledge ourselves as a Conference to do all in our power to aid in the construction of the proposed hospital at Indianapolis.

We join in the suggestion that each licensed Deaconess be allowed annually $15.00 for vacation money.

We recommend that William D Parr be continued on the Board of Hospital Trustees.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

Feeling that the Missionary cause is the paramount issue before the minds and upon the hearts of our people. We therefore recommend the following for adoption and action.

1. That we congratulate the church on the splendid response given the appeals of our pastors for money for missions.
2. That we will give great encouragement to the Station Plan for raising funds.
3. That we, as pastors, will early in the Conference year plan to raise one dollar per member as the minimum for our Missionary Collection.
4. We will call into action our Missionary Committee and Epworth League Committee on Missions and will organize our Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies with a full corps of officers, hold regular sessions of the Society, and present the cause of Missions in that way which we deem in our judgment will be productive of the best practical results for the cause.
5. We will obtain from our headquarters a supply of literature to aid us in giving to our people Missionary information, and thus by the blessing of our Divine Lord create a holy enthusiasm in the hearts of our people to carry out in fact as well as in profession and spirit, the great commission of Him who commanded, "Go ye into all the world and preach my Gospel to every creature."
6. We recommend that the officers of last year be re-elected.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE.

We, the Committee on Parsonages and Furniture, view with great satisfaction the progress being made in the attempt to provide a Parsonage Home upon every Charge within the bounds of the North Indiana Conference, and to add to the convenience, comfort and beauty of the same.

We would reaffirm the resolution of former years:

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder be requested at the first Quarterly Conference, to inquire into the condition of each Parsonage.

That the local Committee on Parsonage and Furniture be urged to purchase one or more articles of heavy furniture each year.

That the Trustees of our Parsonage property be requested to provide means for insuring and keeping the buildings in repair and for beautifying the grounds.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS AND CHURCH LITERATURE.

Next to the pulpit the Methodist press is our strongest arm of power. We do well to foster it faithfully and to use it effectively. No Methodist can be intelligent, loyal and efficient in the highest sense who does not carefully and constantly feed upon our literature. Our books and periodicals are unequaled for Methodists in doctrine, quality and price.

It is superfluous to say that all our Sunday Schools should habitually patronize our own publishers for many reasons. We need better methods as well as greater persistence in the circulation of our literature, especially our books, among our people. The man who finds a practicable solution of this enigma will be a benefactor indeed.

Every member of an Official Board should be expected to take a Christian Advocate. It should also be a weekly visitor to as many homes as possible.

We approve the editorial management of The Western and urge that each charge seek for an immediate increase of at least five subscribers, thus adding a thousand or more to the Conference list.

We take special pride in The Epworth Herald on account of its character, its circulation and its profits. Its proceeds now equal one-third of the entire net earnings of the Book Concern. In view of the splendid history and vital importance of these interests, we are happy to note that both of our publishing houses report an advance of earnings and profit over any previous year of their history. With steady and united support at our hands there need be no decline in these annual returns.

Methodist preachers should be scrupulously careful in regard to their book accounts. An examination of these accounts emphasizes the necessity of better methods, greater promptness and a higher ethical sense in this regard. The committee urges that Presiding Elders see to it that the young men whom they recommend for admission are conscientious and business-like in this matter.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

1. We recognize in the Sunday School one of the most important factors in the moral and religious training of the young. The past has proven its efficiency and forecasts a great future. Its text-book is the Bible; its teachers and officers are earnest, consecrated men and women of God; and its work is to conserve the moral forces of the Church and State, and prepare the rising generation for its part in the struggles and triumphs of our holy Christianity. The Methodist Episcopal Church has over 31,000 Sunday Schools, 350,000 officers and teachers, and 2,600,000 scholars. These figures speak of our opportunities and responsibilities.

2. We believe that our pastors and superintendents in selecting teachers should endeavor to select teachers of earnest Christian character, apt to teach, and of good repute before the world.

3. The literature for the Sunday School, published by the Methodist Book Concern, is the best for the purpose that can be obtained; and we urge that our Pastors and Presiding Elders see that our literature is used in all our Sunday Schools.

4. We recommend that all special days, as "Childrens' Day," "Good Tidings' Day" and Easter be observed and that the temperance lessons and Christmas lessons be used in preference to substitutes.

5. We recognize the claims of the Sabbath School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church and will earnestly endeavor to raise the amount apportioned to each Charge.

TRACTS.

1. The Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is doing a good and great work throughout the world. Every year 11,000,000 pages of Tracts are given away in the United States alone, and $10,000 are sent annually to our mission stations to aid in the publishing and circulation of religious literature.

2. Inasmuch as the Tract Society needs the sum of $50,000 per annum in order to carry on its great work, we urge that the amount apportioned to each Charge be raised in full.

C E Line, President.
Schuyler C Norris, Secretary.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

We, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, submit the following report:

Whereas, The success of our Church depends very largely upon our attitude and action toward certain moral and social questions; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That we realize the importance of greater attention, both by education and enforcement of law, to the preservation of our American Sabbath. We especially deplore the desecration of the Sabbath, making it a day of pleasure, such as Sunday excursions, base ball, and like amusements, all of which tend to lower the standard of Sabbath observance as taught in the Word of God. We most heartily indorse the Sunday League of America, and, as a body, join with it to make the World's Sunday Rest Congress, to be held at St. Louis, in October, 1904, a complete success.

Second, That we will use all our efforts to cause the discontinuance of granting divorces on other than Scriptural grounds.

Third, That we most heartily indorse paragraph No. 248 of the Discipline, and emphasize its importance and utility; and we will urge our people to recognize and obey our rules, and to abstain from those questionable methods of raising funds for the support of the Church.

SUSTENTATION.

1. There is a need for additional support of pastors who serve the weaker Charges of our Conference, and we have no other resources than the Conference Sustenation Fund for this support. We feel that our pastors and people should be impressed with the need of this cause.

2. We recommend that the amount of $2,000 be apportioned this year, as last, to the Districts, and that the funds collected be applied in the several Districts by a committee of three, of which the Presiding Elder shall be Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

We hereby declare our purpose to secure the absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic. This is our purpose because we are thoroughly convinced of the injury wrought by the saloon upon morals and economics, well knowing that it creates no commercial value but destroys much of value; and

Knowing that the saloon is the greatest foe of the church, the home and the nation, destroying what we as a Church would create, tearing down what we would build up;

Being convinced that the mission of the Church to build up Christian character and a Christian nation, is the highest mission and that this is accomplished as Christ is enthroned in the heart, making Christian character, and enthroned in the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the government, ruling and controling the nation as He rules and controls the Christian individual,

And further recognizing that the saloonists' willingness to compromise is an acknowledgement of the Church's power to destroy it now,

And being convinced that the license system instead of being a temperance measure has been the direct cause of the perpetuation and enlargement of the liquor business,

Therefore we desire to declare ourselves dissatisfied with half-hearted methods. That we, the North Indiana Conference, will stand where God and man have a right to expect us to stand—namely in the front of any battle that means the destruction of the saloons of our ward, city, township, state or nation.

We desire to declare ourselves as being in conformity to the action of our General Conference, Discipline 1892-1900, in that we "record our deliberate judgment that no political party has a right to expect, nor ought it to receive, the support of Christian men so long as it stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon. But the foregoing must not be considered as in the interest of any political party." We also affirm the principle of the Discipline of 1900 that the liquor traffic "can never be legalized without sin. Planting ourselves upon the bed rock of that solid proposition, we declare that no citizen and no Christian has a right by example, by voice, by influence, or by ballot to contribute to the establishment or maintenance of the ungodly license policy as applied to the liquor traffic."

Recognizing that the organized liquor interests of our state are making a desperate struggle to repeal certain features of the Nicholson law; but also

Recognizing that the Christian sentiment of the state demands advance temperance legislature NOW, therefore

We appeal to our membership to vote for no man, of whatsoever political affiliation, who is the friend of the saloon, or who is so faint hearted that he will not declare himself in an unmistakable manner opposed to the saloon.

And further, we recommend to the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana the following changes in Section 9, of said bill:

1st. To make it possible for the people of any county, incorporated city, incorporated town, ward, township or precinct, to remonstrate against the saloons in the said county, incorporated city, incorporated town, ward, township or precinct.

2nd. That one successful remonstrance shall prohibit the granting of license to any applicant, in said county, incorporated city, incorporated town, ward, township or precinct, for a period of two years.

We acknowledge the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana, the leader in this proposed legislation and we declare our purpose to help them in all possible ways, and will welcome their representatives into our pulpits.

We desire to express ourselves as being in favor of the Hepburn-Dolliver Bill now before our National Congress, and that we cannot but look with disapproval upon the failure of any public servant of our territory to support this bill; and that we hereby direct the Secretary of this body to forward this our conviction to each and every Senator and Representative from our territory.

We further appeal to our National Government to take action to enlist the civilized nations of the earth in a world movement to prohibit the importation and sale of all intoxicants to the half-civilized and un-civilized peoples.

We hereby express our love and friendship for all who are laboring with us for temperance.

We recommend the reappointment of L J Naftzger, B S Hollopeter and Sherman Powell as Trustees to represent us on the State Board of the Anti-Saloon League and delegates to the National Convention.

Believing that the Temperance Reform is the greatest civil reform in which we are now engaged, we respectfully ask that provision be made for a Temperance Anniversary at the next session of our Annual Conference.

We desire finally to declare our conviction that we shall be successful in this struggle, that the liquor traffic shall be destroyed. In giving us our General Rules Mr Wesley incorporated rules against two great national sins—slavery and the saloon.

And as the battle against slavery has been won, so shall we win as great and complete a victory against the saloon.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

By observation, and by the history of the church, we are convinced that woman's work in the church has been, and still is, in harmony with the plan of God, and that He intended that she should do her part in the evangelization of the world. And as God is opening new fields of Christian activity and is calling our consecrated women into these fields, at home and abroad, and as they are obeying this call, therefore

Resolved: 1st. That we will encourage in our pastoral charges in every way, both in public and private, the development and highest usefulness of the auxiliaries of the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, the Deaconess and W. C. T. U. Work, and any other work that they shall put forth for the upbuilding of the Master's Kingdom.

Resolved: 2nd. That we will welcome all authorized representatives of these Societies to our charges, and will do all in our power to help them in their noble work.

C H Wilkinson, Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Another page of history of the Woman' Home Missionary Society of the North Indiana Conference has been written, and the record clearly indicates that we are "growing."

The increased interest in our literature and subscriptions to our official organs reveals growing intelligence on lines of our work. The increase in finance indicates larger hearts, more love to God and humanity, and the increased membership shows that we are growing in "body." For this growth in mind, heart and body we devoutly thank our Heavenly Father who hath given the increase.

We are pleased to report three new Auxiliaries and two Circles. We now have sixty-six Auxiliaries, ten Circles and ten Bands, with a membership of 2,756, a gain over last year of 259. Several Life Members have been added to the list. The Reading Circle Course has been a great help in interesting our women in Home Missionary Work.

Subscriptions to our periodicals are slowly but constantly increasing. The Supply Department has been quite active. Supplies valued at $3,612.19 have been sent to our ministers on the frontiers and Industrial Schools.

In addition to the regular work of the Society we support seventeen girls in our Industrial Schools, one in the National Training School at Washington, D. C., pay the salary of one missionary and assist on salaries of several others. Special contributions have been sent to Lucy Webb Hayes and Fisk Training Schools; to Boaz, Alabama; Marcy Home, Chicago; Mothers Jewels Home; Italian Work, New Orleans; Community School, North Carolina; New York, Immigrant Work; Utah and Porto Rico. We are not unmindful of our State Work and are raising money for the building fund of our Indiana Methodist Hospital and Deaconess Home and have met our assessment for the support of the Deaconesses.

Our Conference is pledged for one thousand new members this year and we are confidently expecting every Auxiliary to do all in their power to meet this pledge.

We most heartily appreciate the cordial, faithful support and co-operation of our Presiding Elders and Pastors, the loyal, earnest efforts of our devoted women.

Thankful for the past, we confidently expect, under the guidance of our Leader who never fails, to go forward strong in faith to as nearly as possible meet the full measure of our responsibility as a Society in helping to bring the world to Christ.

OBITUARY.

ELIZABETH J. CHAMNESS.

Elizabeth J Potter, daughter of Charles G and Mary Potter, was born in Randolph county, Indiana, January 4th, 1868, and died in Richmond, Indiana, May 16, 1903, aged 35 years, 4 months, 12 days.

On April 8th, 1886, she was married to Mr Wellington Stanley who died after a little more than two years. About one year after his death there little daughter, Opal, went to the heavenly land. After her husband's death she added to the intellectual training received in the public schools a special course for teachers in the Marion Normal School at Marion, Ind. For seven years she was a very efficient and successful teacher in the public schools, where her services were always in demand.

On April 9th, 1896, she united in marriage with the Rev J P Chamness, a member of the North Indiana Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, who is now stationed at the Fifth Street Church, Richmond, Ind. She sustained the relations of wife, and mother of the three children of Bro. Chamness, by a former marriage, in a manner which not only won their profoundest respect and deepest love, but also challenged the admiration of all who knew her.

In her church relations she possessed a birthright in the society of Friends. Converted in early life she remained a member of that church till her marriage with Brother Chamness, when she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. As the wife of a minister she was tactful, discreet, modest, resourceful and helpful. She soon found inviting fields for her well trained powers of mind and heart. In local and district missionary work her able, willing, and untiring services were always instructive, stimulating and highly appreciated. While she was strong in every department of Christian work, she perhaps excelled in her relation to the young life of the church. Her experience in public educational work, together with natural adaptation, eminently qualified her for directing the Junior League forces, and for superintending the primary department of the Sunday School, which she did with great acceptability.

Of the Christian character of Sister Chamness much might be truthfully said by way of eulogy. She possessed the happy faculty of maintaining a beautiful Christian spirit in every function of life, whether educational, humanitarian, social, or religious. As she mingled with the people in these diversified relations all were impressed with the sincerity, nobility, and purity of her life. Every member of the church knew that a cordial, Christian greeting awaited them at the parsonage home.

She had that perfect love which casteth out fear. Animated with a high purpose, sustained by a strong desire to live that she might be useful, she still maintained a calm, sweet and peaceful resignation to the will of God. Her sufferings for the last year were intense, which called into exercise courage, fortitude and great patience. Throughout her great trial she was never known to murmur or complain, but greeted every friend who crossed her threshold with a smile and a word of hope and good cheer. She was always anxious to know her exact physical condition; her inquiry however never betrayed fear, but indicated by word and tone perfect serenity of soul. Not infrequently in the morning she would ask her husband if he thought she would go to the better land that day. Whatever the answer would be she always gave evidence that either way — just so it was God's way—it was all right with her. Such a life will ever remain a precious memory.

She leaves a father, mother, four brothers and two sisters whose sorrow is mingled with the deep grief of the stricken husband and his three children, Earl, Lulu and Ella, for the second time bereft of a faithful companion and loving mother.

The funeral services were held in the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church in Richmond. The Rev George H Hill, DD, Presiding Elder of the Richmond District, preached the sermon, taking for his text "He (she) being dead yet speaketh." Heb xi: 4. The members of the Richmond Ministerial Association attended in a body. Rev E O Ellis read resolutions of sympathy and spoke words of comfort in behalf of the Assosiation.

A special car carried the bereaved family and a large number of relatives and friends from Richmond to Dunkirk, Ind, where they were met by the Rev F M Stone, who conducted the burial service in the Odd Fellows' beautiful cemetery.

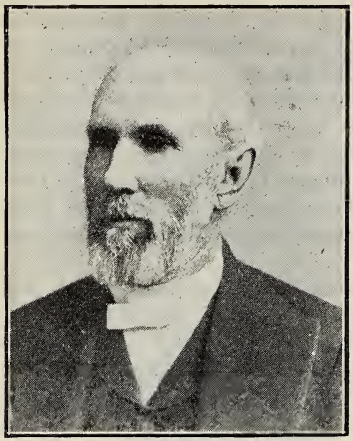
REV. CLARK SKINNER.



The Rev Clark Skinner was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, August 30, 1829. His early childhood was subjected to some very severe trials and tests of his maternal love. In a sketch, found among his papers after his death, he says: "Mother was all the world to me;" and it was mutual, for the only son was all the world to mother. Nine happy summers passed, and during that time the enemy was on the alert, for the mother was stricken with pulmonary disease.

The hectic flush and ashen hue were unmistakable, and the boy with aching heart began to divine the end.

His heart was harassed with the thought that separation was coming, which the mother would constantly urge upon the young mind was only temporary.

Notwithstanding this, the chill would come in the thought of substituting the cold world for a mother's heart-warmth. In a world with no nestling place was more terrible than leaving it. Fortune's smiles had fled, and it had been for years a mother's struggle with poverty, and in this struggle the little son, beyond his years, had given himself. The mother's request was his inspiration continually. If he could succeed in trundling home upon his little rudely made wagon a load of waste gathered by the wayside or from the far-off woods, as the only supply to give comfort, with what exultation he would report at mother's bedside. If with her pale, thin hand she would stroke his head and speak of the comfort it would afford in the preparation of some simple delicacy, and of the cheer and warmth this their only fuel would produce, he was more than repaid. His young heart would swell with manly vigor prophetic of what he would do when abler. It was his delight to minister when possible at her bedside. If a flower or a cup of water could be presented, or a hand's turn of any kind, it was a mutual cheer.

It was the day before her death that he undertook, at her request, to read a beautiful hymn full of rapturous hope for the future; and in making the attempt his utterance choked, his eyes filled, and he utterly broke down in several attempts. After her death, to his childish heart this was a case of disobedience and he felt he would give worlds could he have granted her request.

Her last words were "All is well," and this was doubtless fully verified in the greeting already enjoyed.

Then came the ordeal of separation from two younger sisters living with distant relatives—too distant in natural ties to fill the great vacancy or assuage the deep grief that sat upon the young life.

An instance had occurred at the beginning of the year in which the mother died which seemed to key the life of the boy.

He attended a series of meetings held in a Presbyterian church of which his parents were members. No attention was given to any interest that a comparatively young boy took in the services. He soon began to realize that an unseen power was moving his heart. He wrestled with it, and one night when he retired to bed he was so much concerned that he greatly feared that he might not live to see the dawn of another day and that if he should not his soul must be eternally lost because of his sin. His sleep was disturbed by distressing dreams. At one time in the night his anxiety was so great that he called to his mother and asked if she thought he could be forgiven. She evidently did not understand his case and simply responded, "Hush, child, and go to sleep." There was no help or comfort from any source. It was late in the morning when he awoke to see the sun pouring its light in at the window. That was symbolic of another more glorious sunlight which only waited to fill the chambers of his soul. His first impression was, "I was mistaken in concluding I could not live until morning. I may be mistaken in concluding there is no help nor forgiveness for me. Oh, it may be that I can be forgiven. I will pray." He immediately got out of bed and fell upon his knees and attempted to pray. The absurdity of it seemed to at once confront him, but he was determined to pray as best he could. A few sentences were uttered, when he began to realize marked freedom of access to God and a blessed consciousness that he was taking hold of help, a verity of the Savior to whom he was praying, as much as if he saw him in the room. Christ was indeed a glorious reality to him; "then came the full blaze of realization, a happy, joyous consciousness of forgiveness."

How many fail to understand that the Holy Spirit of God does in reality move upon the hearts of children.

When grown up to young manhood Brother Skinner taught school in Cincinnati and prepared for college, and was educated in Wabash College, located at Crawfordsville, Indiana. He was admitted into the North Indiana Conference at its session in Muncie forty-eight years ago in September, its last fall session.

Three of his class-mates are now superannuated members of the Conference and another, Dr D J Starr, a member of the Cincinnati Conference, is Chaplain of the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio. In 1858, Brother Skinner was transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference and was also, for a short time, a member of the Wisconsin Conference, but was re-transferred to the Northwest Indiana. In 1873 he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference, and again in 1888 became a member of the Northwest Indiana, and in 1893 returned to the North Indiana Conference, showing the flexibility of our economy and that it is readily adjusted to suit any peculiar conditions.

He was pastor in some of the principal towns and cities of Indiana such as Crawfordsville, Laporte, South Bend, Terre Haute, Greencastle, Fort Wayne, Newcastle, Muncie and Goshen, and from 1880 to 1884 Presiding Elder of the Richmond District. In 1884 he was elected delegate to the General Conference which convened in Philadelphia.

About the year 1857 Brother Skinner was married to Miss Nannie C Sewell, who was the mother of his five children, and on January 2, 1870, they were left motherless.

On the 8th of February, 1871, he was married to Miss Martha E Voliva, who is now the bereaved widow.

For a few years he held a supernumerary relation to his Conference and in 1901 took a superannuated relation.

For several years past he was, at times, very much afflicted so that he dared not venture to attend the sessions of his Conference, which had been to him an enjoyable privilege. After thirty-one years of effectiveness in the ministry, he lived in their home in South Bend, Indiana, and was always ready for any service that he could render to the church. His pastor said, on the occasion of the funeral, that he was abundant in labors, supplied many pulpits, and ministered to the spiritual wants of a larger number of people.

His Christian experience seemed to grow brighter and more intensely satisfactory down to the very close of his earthly life. A letter received from him just before the last annual session of our Conference, breathed a very deep and earnest Christian spirit and evinced a readiness to depart and be with Christ whenever he might call for him.

His pastor, Dr E P Bennett, of the First Methodist Church, South Bend, says that near the close of his life "I came into his home; a few hours only seemed to be left him on earth. As we gathered around his bed he was able to respond only by a nod of the head, to questions asked. When he was asked if the Lord was with him, he nodded assent. Then a very beautiful scene was enacted before my eyes, while two of his children recited a little poem, written by their father, as a response to the Mercy and Help Department of the Epworth League, that had remembered him with a gift of flowers.

These were the words:—

"Here is the worn, the tattered tent
Wherein I lived so long,
Fluttering still with many a rent
Caused by tempests strong.
Soon renewed on solid shore—
Pitched under fairer skies—
You'll find me waiting in the door,
Waiting with expectant eyes.

"Life's mantling shadows deepen now,
Yet soon the clouds will lift,
For as I gaze with wistful brow
Radiance flashes from a rift.
Don't let me wait, forever wait,
In throbbing expectation,
But meet me close within the gate
In wondrous exultation."

Then on June 1, 1903, he closed his eyes on the faces of his loved ones on earth, to open them on those who had gone before and on the face of Him who said, "Father, I will that they also whom Thou hast given me be with me where I am that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me."

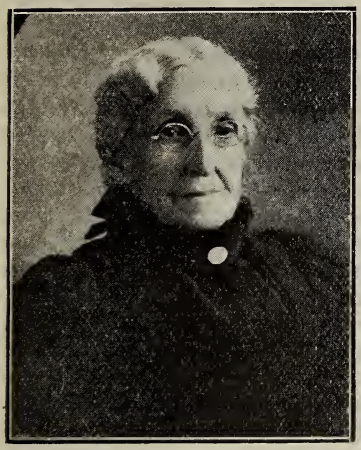
MRS. HANNAH M. BARNES



Was born in Groveland, Livingstone County, N Y, in the year 1813. At the age of eighteen she was married to Horatio N Barnes, who became one of the most honored and effective members of North Indiana Conference, serving in some of the most important stations, and several times Presiding Elder. She was his faithful wife in those days when their ministry associated with hard circuits, mud roads, cabin preaching, log schoolhouses, camp-meetings and widespread revivals. She was a quiet woman, with a well-balanced mind and a sweet and cultivated heart. The virtues and graces of the Christian religion seldom find a more splendid exhibition or a more beautiful adorning than were manifested in her long and eventful life. She lived in many cities, and bore the contact of many people. She tried the evolution of Methodism for nearly one hundred years without a stain upon her character or a blight upon her record. She was marvelously like the good man by whose side she so long and faithfully wrought. Brother Barnes died in Pasadena, Cal, February 15, 1896, at the age of ninety years. She died in the same city, June 16, 1903, at the same age, ninety years. Her life simply ebbed away, with comparatively little pain, and her soul had wondrous triumph through faith. Death was completely under her feet, and her face was radiant with Christian hope. She was buried from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was a cherished member. She was the mother of eleven children, of whom five yet survive, namely: Erastus Barnes, of Pomona, Cal; Mrs Rev F A Hardin, of Rock River Conference; Mrs H M Martindale, widow of the late Rev Charles Martindale; Mrs Rev W J Vigus, of North Indiana Conference, and Mrs Ellen J Magee, of Pasadena, Cal. Funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev Dr A C Manwell. The body was laid to rest beside the body of her husband in beautiful Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena.

LOUISE S. NAFTZGER.

Louise S, daughter of George C and Emma Smith, was born in Centerville, Indiana, April 12th, 1874, and departed this life at her parsonage home in the city of Logansport, Indiana, on the afternoon of September 18th, 1903, aged 29 years, 5 months and 6 days. All of her early life was spent at Centerville where she attended the common and high school, receiving such education as they were able to impart.

She was married to Rev Earle F Naftzger, April 7th, 1897, and to this union one son, Robert, was born. During her married life she shared the work of the ministry with her husband in the following charges: Centerville one year, Charlottsville four years and for the past two years at Market Street Church, Logansport. In all of these charges she was a real helpmeet to her husband, cheering, comforting or encouraging as he had need. In all the responsibilities that came upon her as daughter, wife or mother, she was the very personification of faithfulness and devotion.

In her childhood she was baptized in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, but became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Centerville in the year 1888, during the pastorate of the Rev J W Bowen. In her religious life she was never demonstrative, but clear, trustful and faithful. Her cult would find expression in these words of the poet:

> "I am thine O Lord, I have heard Thy voice,
> And it told Thy love to me,
> But I long to rise in the arms of faith,
> And be closer drawn to Thee."

She had no doubt, she had no fear, she knew Christ as a living personal reality, but it was not her disposition to always give audible expression to her inward musings, yet in her heart was a testimony that was ever satisfying to her own mind and she longed to grow more and more into the likeness of her Lord.

When she became the wife of a minister, she realized that new responsibilities would doubtless come upon her, and while she never courted any position, yet she never refused to perform such service as the Lord asked of her, nor shrank from duty. Again her desires can find expression in the words of the poet:

> "Consecrate me now to thy service, Lord,
> By the power of grace divine;
> Let my soul look up with a steadfast hope
> And my will be lost in thine."

In her work she was a constant inspiration to all who knew her, and tenderly loved by all the people whom they served. Perhaps there was no place where her light shined brighter than in her own home; here her quiet, yet positive life was a constant benediction to her husband. Her very disposition was a sedative to the nervous, energetic temperament belonging to him. She rested and helped him by her quietness. She very much enjoyed entertaining her friends in her home and did it with a quiet grace and dignity, free from worry and fluster, that at once made her guests feel that they were welcome and giving her no special extra care. This made it a real pleasure to be in her home. And while every detail received the most careful attention, at the same time she found time and opportunity to assist her husband much in his work and to give attention to the services of the house of God, both in the regular and special services of the Church.

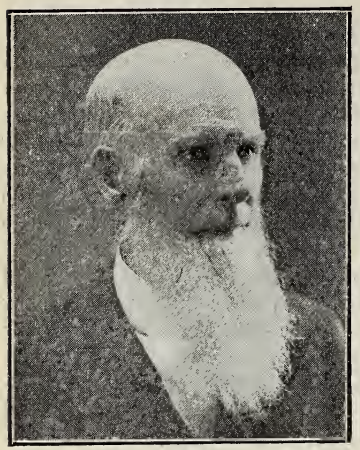
While of a retiring disposition naturally, she possessed social qualities of a high order and many will rise up in the charges they served and bless her memory as one who assisted them greatly in the social duties of life. Her death, from an earthly standpoint, seems untimely; she was cut down when greatly needed and in the midst of her usefulness. The summons came unexpectedly and almost without premonition. Her last illness was of only ten days' duration and seemed to be a sickness unto death from the very beginning, and all the skill of the physicians and the constant attention of kind friends had no effect upon the disease, but steadily and continuously she grew worse until, "she was not, for God had taken her."

Her last hours were conscious and peaceful. On the night before her translation her husband asked her if she realized her serious illness. She replied that she did. He then asked her if she felt reconciled to die, and she replied that "while she longed to live and work for the Master and for her family, she was ready if it was His will to call her now." He then asked if she found Christ precious, and she replied: "O yes, He is very near to me."

A noble, pure life has ended; a sincere, Christian woman has gone out from us; we feel poorer, but rejoice in the wonderful life that has unfolded to her vision. She rests from her labors, but her works will follow her.

Funeral services were held in the Market Street Church at Logansport on Saturday at 11:00 A.M., conducted,in the absence of Dr Herrick, Presiding Elder, because of sickness, by Dr Parrish, pastor of Broadway Methodist Church, assisted by Martin Canse, of Wheatland Avenue, and other pastors of the city. A beautiful tribute from the Pastors' Association of the city was spoken by the Rev Huckelberry, of the Baptist Church. The remains were then taken to Centerville, Indiana, for final interment. Here services were held on Monday, September 24th, at 2:00 P. M. in the Methodist Church, in charge of the pastor and Presiding Elder, Rev George H Hill, D D. The sermon was preached by the Rev Dan H Guild, the music being furnished by the Conference Quartet, Rev Sherman Powell taking the place of Rev Earl F Naftzger. A number of the pastors of the Richmond District were present.

ROBERT F. BREWINGTON.



Robert F Brewington was born near Chesterville, Dearborn Co, Ind, November 8, 1832.

He grew up on a farm and was a Christian in early life and showed a love for study and learning. He made preparation for college and was the first male graduate of Moore's Hill College, graduating in 1859. He then became superintendent of the public school at Wright's Corner, Ind, and not long after accepted a professorship in his alma mater, and, upon the resignation of President Samuel R Adams to accept the chaplaincy of the Twenty-sixth Indiana Regiment, he became the acting president of the institution. In 1862 he was elected president of the College, but declined that he might accept the first lieutenancy of Company K, Sixty-eighth Regiment of Indiana Volunteers. In 1863, because of severe lameness in one foot, he resigned that position and was soon elected as superintendent of schools in Greensburg, Ind.

In 1865 he was again elected to a professorship in Moore's Hill College and again resigned that he might accept the superintendency of schools in Vevay, Ind, where he remained during five years.

In 1872 he was admitted into the Southeastern Indiana Conference and was appointed to Vernon charge, but was soon appointed to the chaplaincy of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, at Knightstown, Ind, where he remained several years, acting for some time as superintendent of that institution after the death of Dr Wishard.

At the earnest solicitation of the writer, who was then Presiding Elder of Muncie District, he came in the summer of 1879 to supply the Dunkirk charge on account of the death of the pastor, and at our annual session in 1880, Bishop Foster announced his transfer to the North Indiana Conference. He was afterward pastor at Pendleton, Mishawaka and Nappanee.

Feebleness of health, caused by severe hemorrhages of the lungs, necessitated several of the changes which have been noted.

He was a man of such noticeable capabilities, having intelligence, an excellent judgment coupled with an amiable Christian spirit, that people would not refrain from urging him to accept positions and they showed a disposition often to risk failures in his service which he himself felt that he could not conscientiously allow them to do, for the work's sake.

Dr Brewington was twice married. In the words of one who knew her well, his first wife was the beautiful and accomplished Miss Valaria Soper, a graduate of his alma mater. For about ten years he was blessed with her loving and elevating companionship. One sweet little son, the offspring of this marriage, was plucked by death when the bud was tender and most beautiful.

Again on November 6, 1878, he was married to Miss Maggie Shaw, of Vevay, Indiana. Some of us here today can bear cheerful testimony to the wisdom of that choice. A blessed Christian woman of intelligence and culture, and who, like himself, had been for years a teacher, and was found to be to him, in his pastoral work, a most charming helper in the work of the Lord. After the Lord took her, in the spring of 1898, for other service with the just, made perfect, how often he said to the writer, "How lonely is the way since Maggie went home." It was not because he lacked the comforting fellowship of Him who wept with Mary and Martha, for it was that same blessed Lord, who made us, that said "it is not good for man to be alone," and that seems to most forcefully teach us that the very fullest fruition of His own glorious and transforming fellowship on earth, comes to a man or woman in the holy Christian unity of that twain which infinite wisdom and goodness has ordained.

After Dr Brewington's health so failed that he could not continue in the pastorate he was for a short time Editor of the Knightstown Banner, and feeling encouraged in this work he decided, in order to the more rapid recovery of his health, to make a change to the climate of California; and there again he made purchase of a newspaper and managed that long enough to ascertain that it was to him a splendid success, financially, as well as otherwise.

We now come, however, to a marked manifestation of his noble, stalwart Christian character and manhood.

After some time had elapsed he learned that if he would conserve his financial prosperity and avert almost certain ruin to his business, by boycott, he must allow in his paper abundant advertising space, and, through it, hearty and repeated endorsement to the wine business, for in that section was one of its strongholds.

He had believed with all his heart what his Lord and Master had said, "Ye cannot serve God and Mammon." He would not try, as thousands have done, to prove his Lord a liar, and even declare by their hypocritical professions that they have succeeded in the effort. He had never attempted such a terribly wicked thing and he would not, but adjusted affairs and came away.

Over forty-six years ago I became acquainted with Dr Brewington, when both of us were teachers in the schools. Thirty years ago that acquaintanceship ripened into most intimate and confidential friendship. It is surely a most encouraging feature in any man's life when he learns that there is anything in himself that delightfully and promptly responds to the drawing and holy influences of a truly good man.

I have known somewhat intimately many pure and noble men, but surely no one who was more so than Brother Brewington. I call him brother, yes. Notwithstanding our years of confidential friendship he never spoke of his honors, and I never, with certainty, knew until on the occasion of his funeral that he had been honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity. There would have been no wickedness in the matter if he had, with his usual humility, told me; but it is doubtful whether he ever thought of it when we were together.

He had also been chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Indiana. He was likewise a member of the Adams Post No. 354 G. A. R., Department of Indiana.

After some years of very feeble and imperfect health he swept through the gates of pearl into his heavenly mansion on October 6, 1903, from the home of a dear sister, Mrs Warner, who lived in sight of their childhood home. At her home he had received the warmest welcome, and from her and another dear sister and other relatives the most tender and faithful watch-care.

A large multitude of his early friends, like Jesus at Bethany in the long ago, wept with the two sisters. An aged brother in distant Iowa could not be present.

By special request made years ago—if he should go first—I was present to conduct the services and was assisted by his pastor, Dr J W Dashiell, who had prepared an interesting and appreciative sketch of his life. Dr Frank G Browne, of the Western Christian Advocate, was present and spoke most beautifully of the esteem and affection held and felt for him by the members of the North Indiana Conference.

Brethren of the Conference, if you had heard him you would have heartily and most gladly endorsed every word that he spoke for you.

For a little while, farewell, dear brother; we will meet thee in the morning!

ELLEN SMITH.

Ellen Smith, whose maiden name was Kennedy, was born in Allegheny county, Pa, April 1, 1826.

Using her own words, she was of Scotch-Irish parentage and was early imbued with the stanch, though somewhat stern, religious principles of Scottish Presbyterian Protestantism.

When sixteen years of age she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, with which she held an unbroken connection until she was removed to the Church Triumphant.

She was a teacher for several years in eastern Ohio, and in 1849 was married to Mr David Aber, of Carroll county, with whom she lived a life of the most ideal Christian and marital happiness for twenty-three years, when the husband of her youth "was not, for God took him."

In 1874 she was again married, this time to the Rev Benjamin Smith, an honored and greatly beloved member of the North Indiana Conference. That blessed union, as she herself characterized it, lasted for nearly twenty-one years, and then Brother Smith went home to God.

Sister Smith was indeed a noble Christian woman, and the Church, composed of such members, would soon, under the divine blessing, take this world for Christ without making any parade.

She was intelligent, aggressive in the very best sense of that word, and there was no interest connected with the establishment of God's Kingdom on earth that did not have her sympathy and personal aid. Her pastors could depend upon her in every line of work. She had been blessed with financial ability and was always recognized as among the most liberal.

She was greatly interested in foreign missions to the heathen, and was for years the Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the North Indiana Conference, an auxiliary of the Northwestern Branch.

She made bequests to the Woman's Foreign Society, and to the Parent Missionary Board; also to her nephew, the Rev David H Lee, for the benefit of a school in India with which he is connected, which bequests will likely amount to about $500 for each. The larger part of two bequests has already been paid over to the Woman's Society and to the pastor of the High Street Church in Muncie, and will go to the credit of that Church.

Bequests were made to relatives, and to Mrs Irene Hammers and her daughter Maude she gave her comfortable and commodious home in Muncie, they being granddaughters of Brother Smith, and who had for some years given to Sister Smith affectionate and faithful watch-care.

She had already, before her death, given to the De Pauw University over $3,000, and through E F Hasty to the Preachers' Aid Society over $1,400.

The departure of Sister Smith from our midst was very sudden. She retired to rest on Friday night in her usual health, and as she did not make her appearance as formerly in the morning, upon investigation she was found lying in her bed apparently unconscious, from which condition she could not be rallied, but very soon, as we fully believe, passed to her heavenly home on Saturday morning, October 31 ,1903.

"It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

"It is not death to fling
Aside this mold'ring dust
And rise on strong, exulting wing
To live among the just.

"Jesus, Thou Prince of Life,
Thy chosen cannot die;
Like Thee, they conquer in the strife.
To reign with Thee on high."

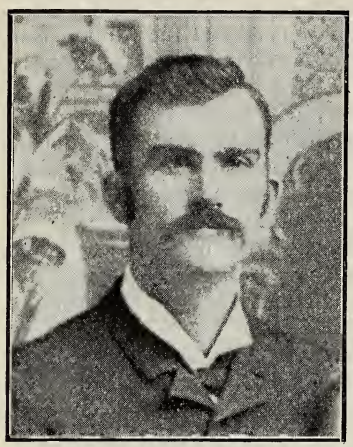
WILLIAM B. RANDOLPH.



The Angel of Death knows no friends. He recognizes neither age nor sex, years of service, nor worth of character. His blow is alike deadly upon whoever it falls. When a few weeks ago it fell upon our brother, William B Randolph, we were, nearly all, much surprised. Although he had been a member of this Conference for more than 16 years, yet few of us were well acquainted with him. Not because of any fault of his or ours, but because ill health had taken him out of the ranks of the effective ministry before he had been able to give more than a few years of service to the work of the Church.

Brother Randolph was born in Shelby county, Ohio, November 12, 1858. While he was yet young he came with his parents to Indiana and settled in Huntington county, where he grew up to manhood.

On April 5, 1885, he was married to Miss Laura Miller of the same county. A part of the two years that elapsed between his marriage and his entrance into the work of the ministry was spent in the city of Huntington. In the spring of 1887 he responded to the call of the Master to enter the work of the ministry, and joined the North Indiana Conference which met at Marion. He was appointed by Bishop Hurst to Lewisville and Ogden, which he served one year. In 1888 he served Knightstown Circuit and in 1889, Fountain City charge. Brother Randolph was considered able in prayer and a good sermonizer. In addition to these, he put his accustomed energy and zeal into his work in the ministry, that he had while on the farm.

His hard study in connection with his intense energy and zeal in this new field of labor was more than his untrained nervous system could bear; the result of which was that while he was still on the Fountain City charge, he suffered a general nervous break down. Thinking that this was only temporary and that he would soon recover sufficient to again take up the work, he was granted a Supernumerary relation, by the Conference in 1890. In the hope that more active employment would be beneficial in the restoration of his health he engaged in secular employment, being part of the time employed as a commercial traveler. Thinking that he was now able to take up the work again, he was made effective in 1895 and stationed at Sweetzer. But sore disappointment was again his part, for at the end of one year he found it necessary, on account of his health, to again ask for a Supernumary Relation which was granted him by the Conference. He continued in this relation until the spring of 1901, when he was placed on the Superannuate list.

Notwithstanding his persistent efforts to regain his health, he was unable to do so, the terrible nervous trouble growing worse rather than better. About three weeks before his death, in the hope of some improvement under better conditions, he was taken to a hospital in Logansport, but alas, even in this he and his friends were doomed to disappointment. He lingered in the terrible agony of Spinal Meningitis, which had been caused by general nervous prostration, until February 10, 1904, when, at the age of 45 years and 3 months, his soul was set free from the body of suffering to be with God. He leaves a wife and three children, Miss Fern, Masters Foster and Paul, together with an aged mother, three brothers and two sisters.

Nowhere more than in contrasting the operations of divine Providence in the affairs of men, with our own plans and hopes for them, are the words of Isaiah made plain where he says, " 'My ways are not your ways,' saith Jehovah." None but those who have entered the ranks of our holy ministry know the awfulness of the disappointment that overtakes a man called of God to the work of the ministry, and finds, notwithstanding all his personal efforts, he cannot respond to the call. But we are comforted in the hope of the future when these eyes shall see and know and these ears shall hear and shall understand. So our brother shall see Him face to face, and hear His words of divine grace, why the will was taken for the deed and it was best to lay down thus early his life that had been given to the Kingdom.

The body was taken to Huntington for burial, and where the funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church by his pastor, Rev J H Runkle, of Marion, assisted by Revs T M Guild and F A Robinson, of Huntington, on Saturday afternoon February 13, 1904. After the services in the church the body was laid away in the Mount Hope Cemetery, to await the call of God to a life of eternal triumph with the redeemed in glory.

A collection of $16.22 was presented to Dr Parr to assist him in purchasing a historical cane given by Governor Wright to Bishop Ames, said cane to be placed in the De Pauw Museum.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee report as follows:

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to adopt the report of the Book Committee relative to the consolidation of our publishing interests.

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to retain Article No. 248 in the body of the Discipline.

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to make no changes in the boundary line between our Conference and the Northwest Indiana Conference.

Believing that the destroying of the Itinerancy by the removal of the "Time Limit" was a mistake, therefore,

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to replace the "Time Limit."

Resolved, That we have heard with much pleasure of the prosperity and bright prospects of De Pauw University. We recognize this institution as most worthy of our appreciation and support. That we extend to Dr Edwin H Hughes, the new President, our cordial greetings and welcome. We congratulate him on the auspicious beginning of his administration, and we promise him our earnest support in securing means and students for the increased usefulness of the University.

Resolved, That we re-affirm our unswerving allegiance to the position held by our Church concerning the legalized liquor traffic as expressed in our Discipline.

Believing that the best interests of our North Indiana Conference Methodism would be conserved with a less number of Districts, we request the Annual Conference to reduce the present number as soon as they can arrange for it.

Resolved, That this Lay Electoral Conference extend to the people of Muncie our sincere thanks for their royal hospitality during our Conference, and to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church for the use of their building.

APPOINTMENT RECORD

APPOINTMENT RECORD.

The following Record is a continuation of that prepared by Rev. L. W. Monson, as found in his valuable Manual, and is brought down to 1903. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of services in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

"I admire a miner's wealth. There is no blood, nor are there tears on it."—Rev. Robert McIntyre.

Is buying mining stock, in a company whose aim is to develop and operate mines, speculation?

Would buying stock in a company, whose aim would be to purchase land, improve and farm it, be speculation?

These are identical in character and purpose.

The Idaho-Oregon Mining Company

OF KOKOMO, INDIANA,

Own two mining properties, located in the famous gold belt of Eastern Oregon, that is noted for the uniform success of every well-managed mine of importance in the district. There has not been a single instance, where good values have been found on the surface of a true fissure vein, that it has not continued as far down as developed. The United States Government's Twenty-second Annual Report of the Geological Survey, three years ago, predicted that these veins, upon which our properties are located, would continue to the greatest depth ever attained in gold mining.

The Ruby Mine is located on the North Pole Vein, upon which the four big mines of the State are situated, and it has proven mines adjoining it at both extremities. On the surface it has shown the highest average values at the same level yet found upon this wonderful vein, conceded to be the greatest in the world.

The Bartholf Group consists of six quartz and two placer claims, in the Gold Ridge mining district. The vein is from three to nine feet in width, and has a length of almost two miles. We have based our estimates of ore on an average of $10.00 per ton, and if it does that it will become one of the great mines of the Northwest. The average, so far, in the upper part of the vein, has been $45.00 per ton. There is enough ore in sight to keep a ten-stamp mill busy several months, and contains enough values to cover every dollar that will be expended on the property to place it on a producing basis. This makes the original investment absolutely secure.

WE INVITE INVESTIGATION, AND MAKE THIS PROPOSITION:

We will give one thousand shares of stock, now worth 15 cents per share, to any one who will, either personally or through a representative, visit and investigate our properties in Eastern Oregon; and this stock is yours whether you buy or not. This offer is made in good faith, and all we ask is that the party taking advantage of it is in a position to invest $500.00 or more in stock, if he finds everything satisfactory. The stock will more than cover the cost of the trip. Anyone seeing the properties and the surrounding mines, with their great mills and reducing plants, can come to only one conclusion—that we have the most promising properties in this wonderful storehouse of riches.

The Woman's College of Baltimore

FOUNDED 1885 OPENED 1888

JOHN FRANKLIN GOUCHER, PRESIDENT

Situation The Woman's College of Baltimore is situated near the northern boundaries of the city of Baltimore, Md., in the new and pleasant residence section, one hundred and fifty feet above tide-water.

Buildings The buildings are seven in number—three devoted to instruction and administration, three to residence. All are new, cheerful and commodious, erected particularly for their respective purposes and containing the conveniences devised by modern architectural science. They are heated from a battery of boilers and lighted by electricity from the new Power house of the College.

Educational Equipment Ample and thoroughly furnished laboratories facilitate study of the natural sciences by modern methods. The apparatus is of recent type, carefully selected. Maps, charts, engravings, photographs and cabinets of specimens and of objects illustrating natural history and the development of the race are liberally provided. There is a good, modern working library of about ten thousand volumes, while half a million volumes are at the service of students in public and institutional libraries easily accessible.

Course of Study The course of study includes prescribed subjects and elective subjects in about equal proportions. Students who wish to follow particular lines of study are enabled to lay a solid foundation for subsequent specialization. Elective courses are offered in Greek, Latin, French, Spanish, Italian, German, English Literature, including Old and Middle English, Mathematics, Geology, Mineralogy, Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Biology, History, Economics and Sociology. Upon the completion of a course usually requiring four years, the student is graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Physical Training and Hygiene Every candidate for the degree is required to pursue a course in physiology and hygiene. A commodious modern gymnasium provides systematic exercises according to the Ling, or Swedish, method under careful trainers and supervision of a physician specially prepared in mechanical therapeutics. Halls are provided for basket ball and courts for tennis and similar sports. Care is taken to prevent excess in these exercises.

Entrance Requirements These are the usual requirements of Eastern Colleges and should be met by graduates of good high schools in which at least one language in addition to Latin is embraced in the course of study. Certificates of preparation which furnish full details will be considered when offered by schools previously accredited and if found sufficient will be accepted as substitutes for examination, otherwise examinations will be necessary. Certificates of the College Entrance Examination Board are accepted.

Numbers The College is now (1904) entering upon its seventeenth session. Its alumnæ number over five hundred. Recent graduating classes have numbered from fifty to seventy-seven. The freshman class numbers, and for the present is limited to, one hundred and twenty-five. Less than one-third of the students are from the immediate vicinity, the remainder are from all parts of the country. All religious denominations are liberally represented.

Lack of Confidence

The only reason there is any limit to the sales of the remedy which we manufacture, is that people have been humbugged so often that they are suspicious of any and every advertised preparation.

We are prepared to back up our every statement, as we know that every person who suffers with Indigestion, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sick Headache, Flatulency, Dizziness and Heartburn, will derive satisfactory results from the use of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN.

We ask you to read the letters from ministers which we publish below. If you are not satisfied, then write us for a FREE SAMPLE before buying the large size from your druggist. That is fair, isn't it?

ILLINOIS

Rev. Joseph G. Wright, Editor of the DIOCESE OF SPRINGFIELD, Greenville, Ill., writes: I am pleased to acknowledge the merit of your medicine, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and thank you for placing such an efficacious remedy for stomach and bowel troubles on the market. I always keep your medicine in the house, and use no other kind. For persons of sedentary habits a laxative and stomach tonic is a necessity, and Syrup Pepsin meets my requirements in this line better than any medicine I ever used, keeping me in splendid health.

INDIANA

Rev. R. A. Kemp, of Charlestown, Ind., Secretary Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, writes under date of September 11, 1899: For years I have been a victim of constipation, and have tried a great many remedies, but have never found anything equal to your Syrup Pepsin. I have suffered from indigestion which caused irregular heart action. A physician who treated me for some time, told me the irregular pulsation could not be relieved as it had become chronic, but after taking nearly two bottles of your medicine my heart has become regular in action. I do not hesitate to recommend it.

IOWA

H. C. Littleton, pastor Church of Christ, Harlan, Iowa, writes: I have used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for indigestion and heartburn, and am very much pleased with its results. I cheerfully recommend it as a pleasant, safe and reliable remedy for dyspepsia. It is the best medicine to sweeten a sour stomach I have ever tried.

GEORGIA

Rev. J. C. Newman, late pastor Milledgeville Church, Atlanta, Ga., writes: I suffered for years with chronic dyspepsia, a generally deranged stomach and torpid liver. This has caused me many a painful hour, and I feel it but honest and just to you to acknowledge the merits of your Syrup Pepsin, as eight bottles cured me, and made a complete change in me. I never have the least trouble any more. I eat heartily, my sleep is restful, and I wake in the morning refreshed and ready for a day's work, in the best of spirits. I am extremely glad to have found so valuable a remedy in my trouble.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO., Monticello, Ill.:

DEAR SIRS: It affords me great pleasure to give an unfeigned and unconstrained testimonial to the value and virtue of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The use of one bottle gave me ready and radical relief from a torpid liver, removed a headache, regulated my bowels, and enabled me to continue my evangelical work without discomfiture or intermission. Your medicine will surely prove a great blessing to any and all who are in need of a good, true friend of a "sound mind in a sound body."

Thanking you for the help and health I have enjoyed at your hands, I am

Your grateful servant,

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS

This is the only College of our Church exclusively for women in all the country from Pennsylvania to California. For thoroughness of work in all departments—literary, music, elocution and art—it is not surpassed by any other school for women, and it is especially to be commended for its helpful influences on character and life, and for its healthy religious atmosphere.

It is not one of the most expensive schools, but it is one of the best. It gives its students health, vigor, inspiration, Christian Womanliness.

READ WHAT THOSE SAY WHO KNOW:

Dr. Berry, in "Epworth Herald:" "No wonder the attendance at the Illinois Woman's College increases rapidly from year to year. It is a charming Christian home."

Conference Visitors: "We believe there is not a school for women in the United States with a healthier moral tone, and where our girls can be sent with more security for their training in all that is good, than there."

The College has the regular literary courses, and also offers the Finest Advantages in Music, Art and Elocution.

The attendance is limited. For several years every place has been engaged before the opening in September. For information write to

The PECK-WILLIAMSON Underfeed Furnace

As the name UNDERFEED implies,

The Coal is Fed Underneath the Fire, instead of on top, the ordinary way. By this method all gases, smoke and combustibles are consumed in their passage up through the live fire which rests above, making it,

Practically, a Smokeless Furnace

This is true even though the cheapest grades of hard or soft coal be used.
